Overview

Michael Sebree has extensive experience in business and corporate transactions, specifically mergers and acquisitions (M&A). He has successfully represented both buyers and sellers in more than 250 M&A transactions totaling several billion dollars in a variety of industries, including construction, automotive, financial services, hospitality, manufacturing, technology, and professional services. He also serves as outside general counsel to many local and regional companies providing business advice regarding:

- Mergers and acquisitions
- Entity formation
- Contract review
- Negotiation and preparation of business contracts
- Private Placement and Venture and Private Equity
- Corporate governance issues
- Trade secret and non-solicitation agreements
- Business succession and tax planning

Mike is also highly experienced in resolving internal shareholder disputes for closely held companies, helping clients navigate complex interpersonal and legal dynamics to reach favorable outcomes.

As a committed contributor to the entrepreneurial and tech communities, Mike has presented for organizations such as Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE). He's lectured on topics including:

- Structuring mergers and acquisitions
- Use of family limited partnerships and LLCs in succession planning
- Legal strategies for established businesses and startups

He has also moderated panels such as Oaklanders Talk Tech program Accelerating Tech Ecosystems, leading discussions on how incubators and accelerators help entrepreneurs attract investors.

In law school, Mike was an editor of the Washington Law Review.
